SELF DECLARATION: ETHICAL PRODUCTION

Digital Record of Supporting Documentation

I Paulien Wesselink hereby declare that the brand O My Bag Amsterdam is committed to social impact through responsible trade practices. The brand carefully selects partner factories that meet high social and environmental standards, giving preference to those with recognized certifications. It supports these partners in creating fair jobs, promotes transparency, and encourages continuous improvement. Factories are engaged in worker training and fair remuneration, and efforts are made to align practices with internationally recognized labor standards, including the prohibition of child and forced labor, health and safety protection, freedom of association, non-discrimination, fair disciplinary practices, regulated working hours, and fair compensation.

I declare that the information contained within the Renoon tools, including any supplementary material, which forms the written evidence provided by myself for the purposes of transparently communicating the brand, product, and supply chain values gives, to the best of my knowledge, a true and accurate presentation.
